PALCHAK IN EIU HOMECOMING PLAY

CHARLESTON, IL--Susan Ellen Palchak, daughter of John and Jean Palchak of Decatur, appeared in Eastern Illinois University's recent Homecoming play, "HAVER'S HOLLER, W.V."

This original musical was written by two collaborating faculty members of Eastern's new College of Arts and Humanities, Marjorie A. Duehmig of the theatre arts department and Henry Butler of the music department.

Palchak played the roles of Miss Prudence Miller and Lurlene in this production about changing the cycle of how you live.

Palchak is a sophomore majoring in theatre with teacher certification at Eastern. She is a 1992 graduate of Stephen Decatur High School.

Eastern, located in Charleston, places its highest priority on teaching in its classrooms and laboratories, supplemented by strong academic services.
