FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CHARLESTON, IL.--Dr. Judy Arin-Krupp, a nationally known consultant in adult development, staff development and stress, is the third Distinguishing Visiting Faculty to present a lecture/workshop this summer at Eastern Illinois University.

Arin-Krupp will speak on 'Male-Female Similarities & Differences Across the Life Span--Sex Does Make a Difference' at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, July 8 in the Booth Library Lecture Room.

She will teach a workshop on 'Understanding and Dealing with Major Life Transitions and Changes' Monday through Thursday, July 7-10.

The lectures are open to the public. Anyone interested in attending the workshop should contact Dr. Charles Switzer, director of summer school at 581-2023 for further information on registration.

A consultant for both private business and education, Arin-Krupp has presented workshops at national meetings of the American Association on Counseling and Development, the American Association for Adult and Continuing Education and the Association for Humanistic Psychology.

She has directed adult development centers in Connecticut and headed adult life cycle projects sponsored by the Religious Education Association of the United State and Canada.

Arin-Krupp has authored three books. She received a Ph.D. from the University of Connecticut.
