FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CHARLESTON, IL--The former general manager of the San Diego Zoo and Wild Animal Park, Terry A. Winnick, will attend an open house at the Coles County Animal Shelter South of the airport on Sunday, July 20.

Hours are from 2 to 4 p.m. Winnick will speak and will answer questions. Informal tours of the facility will be conducted and refreshments will be served.

Winnick, manager of Joan Embery, international goodwill ambassador of the San Diego Zoo, was the zoo's manager from 1982 to 1986. He is now president of Terry A. Winnick & Associates, a consulting firm specializing in recreation industry oriented projects.

Ms. Embery will discuss wildlife survival at Eastern Illinois University's Dvorak Concert Hall on Tuesday, July 22 at 7:30 p.m.

As general manager of the zoo, Winnick had the responsibility for its operation and maintenance. He directed long and short range planning, design and construction, and implementation of all projects and policies related to animal services and animal care.
