FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CHARLESTON, IL--VanLou Trank, an academic advisor at Eastern Illinois University, has been named a 1986 certificate of merit recipient by the National Academic Advising Association.

Cal Campbell, Director of the Academic Assistance Center at Eastern, said "The award is made each year to a very select group of academic advisors from throughout the United states and Canada for exemplary advising practices."

The award will be presented in October at the Association's annual meeting in Seattle.

Mrs. Trank has been an advisor in the Center since 1970. She serves as academic advisor to all beginning honors students. She also edits the Academic Advisement Handbook, used by all advisors at Eastern.

Mrs. Trank holds a master's degree from Indiana University and has done graduate work at Ohio State University.
