Four students from the School of Technology at Eastern Illinois University were finalists in a national contest sponsored by the National Association of Industrial Technology. The college bowl type contest was held in conjunction with the Association's National Convention in Dearborn, MI from October 4-6. The contest tests the students' knowledge in areas such as general management theory, applied computer technology, electronics, manufacturing, and construction.

The finalists from Eastern were Chris Ginder of Jacksonville, IL; Keith Korte of Breese, IL; Rob Proske of Litchfield, IL; and Jeanne Weber of Orland Park, IL. Chris Ginder took first place in the contest and will receive a new 386 Zenith computer awarded by Zenith Data Systems.
