FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CHARLESTON, IL--Lending a hand with soybean harvesting and shucking corn by hand was on Thursday's agenda for Ms. Edna Schade, Special Assistant to Gov. Thompson for Women.

At Eastern Illinois University to meet with area women, Ms. Schade expressed an interest in seeing a farm close-up. Fred and Mary Ann Uphoff, R.R. 4, Mattoon, were her hosts. She rode a combine with Mr. Uphoff before checking out a nearby cornfield.

Her day started with breakfast and a tour at Sarah Bush Lincoln Health Center. Also on the morning agenda was a reception with EIU women at the Tarble Arts Center. Sandy Rives, wife of EIU President Stan Rives, was hostess.

Following a luncheon with health care professionals at the Lord Dining Room in Pemberton Hall, Ms. Schade participated in a general discussion with community and campus women at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Rives.
