WATSON

Watson, a junior political science major at Eastern Illinois University, recently completed a minority internship program sponsored by the BOG, Eastern's governing board.

The internship program gives students practical job experience, while completing their college degrees, and often results in permanent employment at the internship agency.

Watson completed his internship in the Springfield office of Mike Madigan, Speaker of the Illinois House of Representatives.

At Eastern, he is active in Sigma Iota Lambda legal fraternity and is one of its scholars. He has also been on the Liberal Arts and Sciences Dean's List and participated in Mock United Nations as a representative for Japan.

He is a 1987 graduate of Danville Schlarman High School.
