FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CHARLESTON, IL--Jill Anne Arseneau, a student at Eastern Illinois University from Beaverville, has received a $500 vocational education scholarship from the Illinois Congress of Parents and Teachers. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Arseneau.

Ms. Arseneau was chosen from 11 applicants with selection based on scholastic achievement, leadership and commitment to teaching vocational education, according to Dr. Richard Hofstrand, Director of Occupational Education at Eastern.

Ms. Arseneau is a junior and plans to teach business in high school. She said "I want my students to leave my class with a strong foundation in business, but I think, more importantly, I want them to leave with a better sense of their future and themselves."
