NEXT GAME: The Panthers play at Southwest Missouri in another Gateway Conference game at Springfield, MO on Saturday, Oct. 25. . . kickoff is at 2 p.m. CDT.

COACH AL MOLDE SAYS: "We're playing well right now. (Sean) Payton is giving us great play at quarterback, and our defense is improving each game, particularly with our goalline play. We've also shown we can run the ball as well as pass, and this balance has made our offense much more effective."

CHICAGO (SCHURZ): James Marable, sophomore running back, was the offensive 'Player of the Week' rushing 25 times for 114 yards and three TDs . . . that's his third game of the year over 100 yards . . . he is averaging 68.3 yards p/game on 115 carries for 478 yards and 10 TDs. . . his 11.1 points p/game will rank in the top five in NCAA I-AA stats.

WINNETKA (NEW TRIER): Jeff Mills, sophomore linebacker, was the defensive 'Player of the Week' getting five solo tackles, 14 assisted and intercepting a pass . . . it's the third time he's been honored this year as the top segment player . . . he leads the team with 82 tackles, has four tackles for loss, two pass interceptions and a QB sack.

LIBERTYVILLE: Jim Miteff, junior offensive guard, was picked the offensive 'lineman of the week' . . . it's the third time this year and second straight game he's been selected for that honor.

OAK LAWN (RICHARDS): Calvin Pierce, senior slotback, was the 'receiver of the week' catching seven passes for 106 yards . . . Pierce continues to lead the team with 41 receptions for 693 yards and three TDs.

CHICAGO (DUNBAR): Darius Shavers, senior free safety, moved to strong safety in place of injured Bob Bronaugh for the WIU game and responded with nine assisted tackles . . . he's No. 3 on the team with 54 total tackles.

EVANSTON: Carl Parker, junior nose guard, picked eight tackles vs. WIU including a QB sack and tackles for loss. . . Parker has 39 tackles this year with three tackles for loss and a QB sack.

MEN'S CROSS COUNTRY

WEEKEND RESULT: With each member of the top seven running a season best, the Panthers won the first Eastern Illinois Open by a 22-39 margin over runner-up Southern Illinois-Edwardsville at home Saturday. Lincoln Land CC was third with 86 points and Danville Area CC fourth in the four-team meet with 90. Eastern sophomore John Wells took individual honors, covering the 8,000-meter course in 25:46.5.

NEXT MEET: EIU will take next weekend off in preparation for the Association of Mid-Continent Universities Conference Championship on Saturday, Nov. 1, at Macomb. The five-mile race is scheduled to begin at 11 a.m.

ASSISTANT COACH TOM AKERS SAYS: "I was very pleased with the way we ran...we knew it wouldn't be a lot of competition as far as the teams went, but the 52.5-second split between our top five runners is pretty good...our pack is moving up, but so is our No. 1 runner...everybody is making improvement, so I won't get too greedy, I guess."

JASONVILLE, IN (SHAKAMAK): John Wells, sophomore, won the Eastern Open in convincing fashion, pulling away from the field in the final mile en route to a first-place time of 25:46.5 for 8,000 meters. Wells has been EIU's top runner in all five meets this season. Wells' winning time also was his personal best for 8,000 meters (4.97 miles).

WHEATON (NORTH): Dan Scheffler, junior, captured third place in a season-best 26:00. It was the third time this season Scheffler has been the Panthers' No. 2 finisher.

PONTIAC: Bruce Albright, sophomore, took fifth place in a season-best 26:18. Albright, who had been EIU's second finisher in the last two meets, was the team's No. 3 placer.

WHEATON (NORTH): Tom Buchanan, junior, placed sixth in a season-best 26:23. Buchanan had been the Panthers' No. 3 finisher in the four previous meets this season.

MCHENRY: Brian Wright, junior, captured eighth place in a season-best 26:39 while being EIU's fifth finisher.

WOMEN'S VOLLEYBALL

LAST WEEK'S RESULTS: EIU lost to Butler 17-19, 15-17, 15-7, 15-13, 14-16; lost to Bradley 10-15, 15-7, 15-13, 5-15, 7-15; lost to Western Illinois 15-8, 7-15, 15-17, 7-15.

TEAM RECORD: 11-14 overall, 0-2 in the Gateway Conference

THIS WEEK: Eastern hosts Drake Friday, Oct. 24 and Northern Iowa Saturday, Oct. 25.

LIBERTYVILLE (HS): Diane Eiserman, junior outside hitter, tallied 16 kills and 20 digs in Eastern's five-game loss to Bradley. She also had 11 kills, four service aces and 16 digs against Western Illinois.

OAK PARK (OP-RIVER FOREST): Maura LeFevour, senior middle hitter, was credited with 10 kills and one error in 22 attempts for a .409 hitting percentage versus Western Illinois. She also tallied 12 kills and five total blocks versus Bradley.

OAK FOREST (HS): Donna Sicher, freshman setter, notched 36 assists, three service aces and 27 digs in EIU's losses to Western Illinois and Bradley.

WOMEN'S CROSS COUNTRY

WEEKEND RESULT'S: Eastern placed second of three teams at the SEMO Open.

NEXT EVENT: Gateway Conference Championships (Springfield, MO; Nov. 1.)

COACH CRAFT SAYS: "Janine Jarris ran very well for us...as did Kerri Sperry. This was only a two-mile race so the girls had to run a little faster. I was pleased with our times, and this meet really helped out with the girls' confidence."

ST. CHARLES (HS): Janine Jarris, senior captain, continued to lead Eastern while placing second overall in the two-mile run in the SEMO Open with a time of 11:24.26 over two miles.

LITCHFIELD (HS): Kerri Sperry, senior, finished sixth overall with a clocking of 11:42.95.
