FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

TAYLOR NAMED TO DEAN'S STUDENT ADVISORY COUNCIL

CHARLESTON, IL--Star Taylor, whose parents Mr. and Mrs. Pete Taylor live in Oakland, has been named to the College of Applied Sciences Dean's Student Advisory Council at Eastern Illinois University. The 1986 graduate of Oakland High School is a senior home economics major at Eastern.

The Dean's Student Advisory Council provides an opportunity for student input and assistance to the Dean. Student representatives, who must have a junior standing with at least one semester of residency at Eastern, are nominated by the faculty and selected by the Dean from program areas within the Schools of Home Economics and Technology, the Career Occupations Program and the Department of Military Science.

Projects sponsored by the Dean's Student Advisory Council have included a student newsletter, an open house of facilities in Klehm Hall, a career analysis and assistance workshop, and an international symposium.
