FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CHARLESTON, IL--(January 21, 1986)--Eastern's women's basketball has a pair of up-coming games which can best be called...critical. The Lady Panthers--11-4 overall and 3-2 in the Gateway Conference--are currently tied for fourthin the league with Bradley (3-2).

Defending league kingpin Illinois State (8-7, 4-1) is in third-place prior to a Thursday night (7:30) game in Lantz Gym. Indiana State (2-13, 1-4) travels to Charleston to take on EIU Saturday at 5:15 p.m. Drake and Southern Illinois lead the pack at 5-0 while Illinois State is a game back.

WLBH radio (97 FM) will broadcast the Eastern Illinois-Indiana State game Saturday, January 25. Mike Bradd will handle the play-by-play duties with the pre-game show commencing at 5:15 p.m.

"These two games this week are really important to us," explained Eastern Illinois head coach Barbara Hilke. "Illinois State started out 0-5 but they have really been coming on lately. They are the defending conference champion. Indiana State is a physical team that has lost some close games lately. They are a team to watch out for."

The Lady Panthers' strength lately has been coming from their bench. Reserve guard PAT HAMILTON (Decatur/Eisenhower) has scored 29 points and garnered eight steals in the past two games. She has been a pleasant surprise in a guard corps depleted by injury and illness. Freshman SHELLY ETHRIDGE (New Baden/Breese Mater Dei) underwent shoulder surgery and will be out for the season while fellow-rookie SHERYL BONSETT (Scottsburg, Ind.) didn't play in the win over Western Illinois due to a bout with the flu.

A few other reserves have also made significant contributions off the bench lately. Sophomore KERRY WALSH (Des Plaines/Marillac) started in place of injured SUE HYND (Ottawa) against Bradley and Western Illinois and scored 17 points while grabbing 11 boards. 5-foot-6 freshman LIZ CAVANAGH (Springfield/Sacred Heart) came off the bench in the Lady Panthers' win over WIU to tally a career high 12 points while sophomore ANN BROWN (Evanston) had 12 points.
