FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

STUDENT MARSHALS

CHARLESTON, IL-- Students chosen to represent the Honors Programs as Marshals during the recent Eastern Illinois University commencement ceremony were left to right, Irfan Lateef of Charleston; Vicky Kimble, daughter of Linda Kimble of Pekin and

-more-

Marvin Kimble of Springfield, OH; Andrea Englebright, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Englebright of Paris; and David Braddock, son of Mr. and Mrs. Connie Braddock of Bluford.

Lateef, a 1989 graduate of Charleston High School, is a sophomore majoring in electrical engineering. He is a member of the Association of Honors Students and an Honors Scholarship recipient.

Kimble, a 1988 graduate of Canton Senior High School, is a junior majoring in computer management and accounting. She is a member of Phi Alpha Eta and a Cooley-Marathon Scholarship recipient.

This is the fourth time Englebright, a 1987 graduate of Paris High School, and a senior majoring in Junior High Education has been selected to be a student marshal. She is President of the Association of Honors Students and Historian for "tassels" a honor and service organization.

Braddock, a 1986 graduate of Wayne City High School, is a senior majoring in computer management and accounting. He is president of the Student Accounting Society.

The marshals serve as official ushers for various commencement exercises. During the commencement, they wore white academic robes, carried batons decorated with EIU's colors of blue and gray and assisted with the processional and recessional.
