FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

CALENDAR RELEASE

CHARLESTON, IL--Eastern Illinois University has published a Calendar of Events for the Fall Semester.

The Fall calendar, produced by the Office of University Relations, lists nearly 100 major public events scheduled from August through December 1990. It includes event information numbers, a map of the University and campus parking information.

Workshops/seminars, lectures, film presentations and special entertainment events are among the items included. Most of the events are held on the Eastern campus.

The calendars were distributed to students during central registration and are being distributed to faculty and staff and off-campus locations, including libraries and high schools.

Copies are also available at the Booth Library circulation desk, the University Union Arrangements Office and University Relations Office, 109 Old Main.
