FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

GINDER WINNER IN NATIONAL ITIQ CONTEST

CHARLESTON, IL--Eastern Illinois University sophomore Chris Ginder, whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. Steve Ginder, live in Jacksonville, is the winner of a national contest sponsored by the National Association of Industrial Technology.

He is among four students from the School of Technology at Eastern who were finalists in the contest.

The contest, recently held in Dearborn, Michigan, tested the students' knowledge in areas such as general management theory, applied computer technology, electronics, manufacturing, and construction.

Ginder, a 1989 graduate of Jacksonville High School, is majoring in Industrial Technology with a concentration in electronics. He was awarded a personal computer for his achievement.
