FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

CHARLESTON, ILL (September 2, 1986)--The Eastern Illinois University volleyball team is California-bound as it takes its show on the road this week.

The Lady Panthers--0-3 on the young season--take on perennial national power San Diego State Wednesday night and will compete in the University of San Diego Classic Friday and Saturday. Other teams competing in the round robin tournament include: U.S. International, Idaho State, Northern Arizona and University of San Diego.

"I believe the team is looking forward to the challenge of going out to California and competing against some excellent teams from the west coast," explains fourth-year head coach Betty Ralston. "All the matches this week will prepare us for the rest of our non-conference and Gateway Conference schedule. I hope we can stay away from the mental mistakes that hurt us last weekend at Northern Illinois.

"I was impressed by the way we never gave up and also our blocking is coming along a great deal. This team has the potential...if it continues to work hard...of being the best blocking team I've ever had here at Eastern."

Junior setter/outside hitter JEANNE PACIONE (Mt. Prospect/Wheeling HS) is the team's leader in kills with 31. She is also second on the team in hitting percentage (.280) and assists (51).

Middle hitter MAURA LEFEVOUR (Oak Park/O.P.-River Forest HS) has the team's best hitting percentage thru the early-going with a .293 mark. The 5-10 senior also has seven block assists--second on the team.

Powerful sophomore GIANNA GALANTI (LaGrange/Lyons Township HS) tallied seven block solos and eight block assists on the weekend. The 5-10 all-conference candidate leads the team with 15 total blocks; Galanti collected nine block solos and 38 blocks all last season.

Heady outside hitter LAURA BRUCE (LaGrange/Lyons Township HS) is second on the team in kills with 25. The versatile sophomore has also recorded two block solos and five block assists to go along with a team-high 45 digs.

Highly-touted freshman DONNA SICHER (Oak Forest/ HS) made her collegiate debut in fine fashion. The spunky 5-6 setter recorded 64 assists (5.33/gm) and 33 digs en route to being one of the catalysts for the Eastern offense.
