FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

PRESIDENT REQUESTS RELEASE OF STANCZAK REPORT

CHARLESTON, IL--Eastern Illinois University President Stan Rives today released the following statement. "As indicated at the open meeting with faculty and staff last Friday afternoon, I have urged Board of Governors Universities Chancellor Thomas Layzell to make the Stanczak Report public. I have indicated to him that if he does so I will also make my report in response to Stanczak's investigation public. To my knowledge, no litigation is pending on this matter and I believe the University Community and the general public are entitled to the information contained in the report and the reply. The Chancellor is obtaining legal advice on whether the report can be released. The decision must be made by the Chancellor since the Stanczak Report was made to the Board of Governors."
