CHARLESTON, IL--Andy Brulle, an associate professor of special education at Eastern, will be the Panthers first 'guest coach' of the 1985 season.

Each home game EIU head coach Al Molde selects an individual to serve as a 'guest coach' which allows the person to observe midweek practices, participate in the pregame meal and meetings, watch the contest from the sidelines and be admitted to the lockerroom during postgame comments.

"We had quite a bit of favorable response to this last season, and I'm pleased that Andy has accepted the invitation to be our first 'coach' this fall," said Molde. "It's not limited to EIU employees so we're hopeful of having some off-campus fans contact us, too."
