FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

CITY--UNIVERSITY WATER DISPUTE CONCLUDED

CHARLESTON, IL--An independent audit previously agreed upon by the City of Charleston and Eastern Illinois University indicates the University does not owe the City any additional funds for water usage.

The audit, conducted by Larsson, Woodyard, and Henson of Charleston concluded there is no balance due after the University had earlier voluntarily made a $177,320 payment.

"We are pleased," said President Stan Rives, "this matter is concluded. Our position was that if we owed for documented additional water use, we would pay the bill. Mayor Lanman and I agreed to have this matter settled by an independent audit and the matter is now concluded."
