She is also Eastern's elected representative to the Employee's Advisory Committee to the State Universities Civil Service System; past president of the EIU Staff Association; past president of the Non-Negotiated Civil Service Council; and served four years as civil service representative to the Council of University Planning and Budget.

She has also served on the North Central Accreditation self-study and Lord and University Distinguished Service Awards Committees. She helped establish the University Service Awards program and most recently served on the Program Committee for the 1991 Women's Expo and Health Fair at Eastern. She has also completed Eastern's Programs for Professional Enrichment.

Timmons is a member of the American Payroll Association and a recent graduate of the Central Association of College and University Business Officers' Management Institute.

She is also elder and secretary of the Planning-Building Committee of the First Christian Church, Casey.

Timmons has four children: Mrs. Andrea Schiver of Martinsville; Michael of Oakland; James of Panama City Beach, Fla.; and Rusty, a freshman at EIU. Her grandchildren are John and Andrew Schiver and Matthew Timmons.
