She was recently recognized by the U.S. Treasury Department for her support and promotion of U.S. Savings Bonds in the Payroll Office.

Hinkle has been named an Employee of the Month at Eastern and is past representative to the Non-Negotiated Civil Service Council.

Formerly of Casey, Hinkle is a Charleston High School graduate. She and her husband, Terry, division president of Columbian Savings and Loan in Charleston, have two daughters: Jennifer Craig, a part-time student at Lake Land College and an employee of Heartland Federal Savings and Loan, Charleston; and Amanda Craig, a junior at Charleston High School.

She is an active member and past deacon of the Casey First Christian Church.
