FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

HUGH SHIELDS AWARD GIVEN TO EASTERN CHAPTER

CHARLESTON, IL--Mark Peacock, whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Peacock, live in Morris, is a member of Eastern Illinois University's Delta Tau Delta social fraternity, which was recently awarded the Hugh Shields Award for Chapter Excellence.

Of 123 Delta Tau Delta chapters nationwide, Eastern's chapter was one of ten outstanding chapters awarded the Hugh Shields Award by the National Chapter of Delta Tau Delta.

The award, the highest honor an undergraduate chapter can receive, is based on academics, community service and citizenship, and campus leadership.

Peacock, a 1987 graduate of Morris Community High School, is a senior finance major. He is the recipient of the Outstanding Senior Award and served as vice-president of the fraternity during the past year.
