FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

EIU ROUND TABLE MEETING

CHARLESTON, IL--All area school administrators and guests are invited to Eastern Illinois University's Administrators final Round Table meeting April 30, at the Charleston Motor Inn.

Larry Janes, professor of educational administration at Eastern, said, "The program we have arranged is designed to address some unique perspectives and feature outstanding presenters."

Carol Pyles, Dean of Eastern's Health, Physical Education and Recreation Department, will involve the group with professional imagery and impact. The discussion will deal with the issues of professional image and self-esteem.

Attorney T.J. Wilson of Monticello will then address legal issues emphasizing personnel matters and special education.

EIU ROUND TABLE

"What Administrators Should Know About Cooperative Learning" will be the focus for Judy Ivarie, Eastern professor of special education.

Charleston High School Principal Dean Tucker will make the final presentation, "It Takes Time," which deals with balancing professional and personal life.

The Round Table, a forum comprised of area school district superintendents, key administrators and their guests, meets regularly to address issues concerning education in area schools.

The program will begin at 9:35 a.m. (coffee at 9 a.m.), followed by lunch at 11:50. For reservations or more information, call Larry Janes at 581-2919.
