FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

MEDINA HONORED

CHARLESTON, IL--Karen Medina, daughter of Carlos Medina of Bolingbrook and Sylvia Brucker of Chicago, has received the "Women of Achievement" award from the Women's Studies Council at Eastern Illinois University.

The Council presented three awards to individuals who have made significant contributions to the University and/or the larger community.

Medina, a 1989 graduate of St. Benedict High School, is a sophomore journalism major. She is responsible for creating and organizing the Hispanic Student Union at Eastern and has developed a greater awareness about Hispanics through her work as reporter and news editor for Minority Today. She also serves as a part-time sportswriter for the Charleston Times-Courier.
