FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

TWO AREA STUDENTS RECEIVE AWARDS

CHARLESTON, IL--Two area students were recently presented awards at Eastern Illinois University's Lumpkin College of Business annual awards ceremony.

Michael Ballagh, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Ballagh of Centralia, received a Delta Sigma Pi Scholarship Key.

The award is made annually to the senior graduating with the highest cumulative grade average. Selection of the recipient is made by the sponsor and club members.

Ballagh, a 1987 graduate of Centralia High School, was a senior computer management major in the spring semester. He has been a member of Phi Beta Lambda, Society for Advancement of Management, the Dean's Student Advisory Board, and Delta Mu Delta.

Jonathan D. Rakers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerome B. Rakers of Carlyle, received a Eunice W. Dougherty Scholarship and a Delta Mu Delta Junior Achievement Award.

Eunice W. Dougherty Scholarships, established by a bequest of Ms. Dougherty, are given annually to outstanding juniors enrolled in programs administered through the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences and the Lumpkin College of Business.

The Delta Mu Delta Junior Achievement award is made annually to the business administration major completing the junior year with the highest grade point average.

Rakers, a 1988 graduate of Carlyle High School, was a junior accounting major in the spring semester.
