FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

STUDENT MARSHALS

CHARLESTON, IL--Lori Rood (left), daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Rood of Shelbyville; Mark Craig, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard T. Craig of Charleston; Jeff Waldhoff, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Waldhoff of Shumway; and Laura Vail of Charleston, pose with Herbert Lasky, Director of the Honors Programs at Eastern Illinois University.

The four students, all members of Eastern's Honors Programs, were selected as student marshals for the recent commencement ceremony at the University.

Rood, a 1990 graduate of Shelbyville High School, was a sophomore mathematics major during the summer term.

Craig, a 1990 graduate of Charleston High School, was a sophomore engineering major.

Waldhoff, a 1990 graduate of Beecher City High School, was a sophomore at Eastern in the summer term and has been on the Dean's List.

Vail, a 1990 graduate of Charleston High School, was a sophomore special education major. She is a recipient of the Teacher Special Education Scholarship, and has been on the Dean's List.

The marshals serve as official ushers for various commencement exercises. During the commencement, they wore white academic robes, carried batons decorated with EIU's colors of blue and gray and assisted with the processional and recessional.
