CHARLESTON, IL--Two area students served as marshals during Eastern Illinois University's recent commencement ceremony.

Waldhoff, a 1990 graduate of Beecher City High School, was a sophomore at Eastern in the summer term and has been on the Dean's List. He is also a member of Eastern's Honors Programs.

Flach, a graduate of St. Anthony High School, was a senior elementary education major during the summer term. She is a member of Kappa Delta Pi honor society and has also been on the Dean's List.
