FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

SIGMA NU PLANS FUNDRAISER

CHARLESTON, IL--To raise funds for the Make-A-Wish Foundation of Central Illinois (which grants wishes to terminally ill children), the Sigma Nu Chapters of Eastern Illinois University and Western Illinois University in Macomb, are planning a game-ball run in conjunction with the Oct. 5 EIU/WIU football game at O'Brien Stadium.

"Between the two chapters, we hope to raise $3,000 in pledges for miles run between Charleston and Macomb," said Greg Share, a senior from Arlington Heights and EIU Sigma Nu publicity chair.

Western's Sigma Nu Chapter will make the first leg of the run on Oct. 3 when they travel from Macomb to Springfield. Once they reach the Capitol building, they will pass the football to Eastern Sigma Nu members, who will make the last leg of the journey.

During pre-game, Oct. 5, representatives from each chapter will present the football and a check to Make-A-Wish representative.

"We are hoping to get a lot of support from businesses in Charleston and Macomb," Share said, adding that more than $1,000 has been pledged to Eastern's Chapter thus far.

He emphasized, "The success of this event is very important to the children who Make-A-Wish sponsors and with everyone's support we can help make a child's last dream come true."

Individuals wishing to make a donation may call Share at 581-6519 or Jeffrey Scott at 581-6515.
