FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

FICKES RECEIVES SCHOLARSHIP

CHARLESTON, IL--Suzanne Fickes, whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fickes, live in Worth, has received The Rudolph D. Anfinson Scholarship at Eastern Illinois University.

The Rudolph D. Anfinson Scholarship was established by Mrs. Ralph Widener, Sr. and Dr. Ralph Widener, Jr. in honor of Dr. Rudolph D. Anfinson of Charleston, former Dean of Students who was on the faculty at Eastern for 37 years.

The award is presented annually to a junior, senior, or graduate student who is active in extra-curricular activities (excluding intercollegiate athletics) and who displays outstanding character and scholastic achievement.

Fickes, a 1988 graduate of A.B. Shepard High School in Palos Heights, is a senior speech communication major with a business administration minor. She has also been in the department honors program, on the Dean's List, and is a member of Phi Gamma Nu business fraternity, Phi Alpha Eta honorary society, Women in Communication, and St. Vincent's of DePaul Society. She is also a student government representative on the Radio/TV board.
