

ACT I

Our Neighbor

BY

D. M. COLEMAN

Narrator ----- John E. Bielenberg

People who actually attended the dinner:

Sarah Bush Lincoln ----- Lucina Gabbard

John J. Hall ----- Keith Jones

Matilda Moore ----- Katherine Ensign

Andy Allison ----- John Fisk

Abraham Lincoln ----- Rex Syndergaard

Gus Chapman ----- Robert Hodge

Mrs. N. S. Freeman ----- Diana Mullinax

Mrs. Sarah Fox ----- Judy Chamberlain

Dovie Purcell ----- June Johnson

R. H. Osborne, the schoolmaster ----- Harold Marker

Dave Dryden ----- James Koertge

Rufus Allison ----- James Roy

Isaac Rodgers ----- Stanley Tyler

Added Characters:

Edward Jordan ----- Eddie Chance

John Jordan ----- William Ozier

Mary Jordan ----- Mildred Hofacker

Abolitionist ----- John Ensign

Southern Cousin ----- Robert Timblin

Scene. Common room of the house of Matilda Moore, daughter of Sarah Bush Lincoln by her first husband (Daniel Johnston) and step-sister of Abraham Lincoln.

Time. January 30, 1861.

Direction by E. Glendon Gabbard

Technical direction by John E. Bielenberg

INTERMISSION

ACT II

But Not In Vain

A program of readings selected and arranged by John E. Bielenberg.

Readers:

For Abraham Lincoln ----- James Sarver

For The Slave ----- Leroy Blackful

For The Union ----- Debera Works

James Wilhelm

For The Confederacy ----- Carol McHenry

Thomas Clark, Raymond Hoops

Narrated and Directed by John E. Bielenberg

Organist and Director of Music: Mary Ruth Hartman

★ ★ ★

Selections used in "But Not In Vain" have been taken from the following pieces of Literature:

The Second Inaugural Address—Abraham Lincoln

Secession—[T.A.R. Nelson?]

Uncle Tom's Cabin—Harriet Beecher Stowe

The Declaration of Independence—Thomas Jefferson, et al.

Our Flag—T. H. Underwood

Letter To Horace Greeley—Abraham Lincoln

Emancipation Proclamation—Abraham Lincoln

Preamble to the Constitution of the United States

Preamble to the Constitution of the Confederate States

Army Hymn—Frederick Denison

Richmond, Her Glory and Her Graves—Mrs. Cornelia J. M. Jordan

I'm Dying, Comrade—Mary H. C. Booth

The South Carolina Hymn of Independence—C. B. Northrop

Destruction of the City of Columbia, South Carolina—Elizabeth Otis
Marshall Dannelly

Gone With The Wind—Margaret Mitchell

Chivalry and Slavery—John Burke

Lay My Burden Down, A Folk History of Slavery—edited by B. A.
Botkin

With Sherman To The Sea—Theodore Upson (edited by Oscar O.
Winther)

This Was Andersonville—John McElroy (edited and with an Introduction by Roy Meredith)

The Gettysburg Address—Abraham Lincoln

