

"Abe And Stepmother"

Rex Syndergaard and Mrs. E. G. Gabbard portray Abraham Lincoln and his stepmother in an original play opening tonight at the Fine Arts Theatre. The play by Mrs. Dorothy Coleman hinges on Lincoln's last visit to his stepmother before he left for his inauguration. The visit took place at the Moore House south of Charleston on the blacktop highway. The play will be presented each day at 8 p. m. through Saturday.