

But the CAA defeated a motion to communicate with Clark to submit a new course proposal for a student leadership course.

Whitley said that the removal of the proposal from the agenda and the decision not to contact Clark does not preclude the submission of a proposal from Clark to CAA.

Tennessee Williams' play to be presented

The Tennessee Williams play "Summer and Smoke" will be presented 8 p.m. Friday and Saturday and at 2 p.m. Sunday in the Fine Arts Center Theater. J. Sain of the Theatre Department said Thursday.

The play evolves around the life of Alma Winemiller, a prudish daughter of a strict minister father. Alma will be played by Ann Shapland.

Alma is in love with her childhood sweetheart, John, who feels that the only thing to sex is the act of copulation. Randy Arney will play John.

Although John ignores her, Alma continually criticizes him for his cold attitude toward women and sex.

Both eventually change their attitudes, which causes even more problems.

Admission to the play is $2.50 for adults, $1.50 for high school-aged and under and $1 for students with ID.
