13 Bells of Boglewood opens Thursday

University Theatre presents "13 Bells of Boglewood," a Youth Theatre production by Max Bush, on the Mainstage of the Doudna Fine Arts Center at 7:00 p.m. Thursday, April 22 and 2:00 p.m. Sunday, April 25, 1999.

Set deep in the forest of Boglewood, there lies a buried treasure, protected by a host of magical and mischievous creatures. The treasure means life to the Spriggans and faeries who live in the forest and untold wealth to Casey Smith, a greedy landowner, and Brian, a youth hired to help Casey dig up the gold. When Casey tries to steal the gold for himself and threatens the very existence of these magical creatures, young Brian must choose between material possessions and helping his new friends.

"13 Bells of Boglewood" is directed by Jean Wolski and features Jason Blackburn, Seth Berry, Debbie Donovan, Damen Edwards, Robyn Lyons, Liz Marfia, and Jennie Pepsnik in the cast.

Tickets are $6 adults, $3.50 seniors, children and EIU students. Call 581-3110 Monday through Friday between 1 and 5 p.m. and one hour before each performance for reservations and ticket information.
