

EIU to Present Williams Play

Charleston

"Summer and Smoke," a drama by Tennessee Williams, will be performed by the Eastern Illinois Theatre Department this month in the Fine Arts Center Theatre.

Performances are scheduled for 8 p.m. Friday, Saturday and Nov. 21 and 22. An afternoon performance is scheduled for 2 p.m. Nov. 23.

Tickets, which are $2.50 for adults, $1.50 for persons 18 and under and $1 for students, may be purchased in advance at the Fine Arts Ticket office. The office is open 1 to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday and an hour before each show. For reservations call 581-3110.

News photo by Scott Weaver

Summer smoke

Scott Stanley (seated left) as Dr. John Buchanan, Sr., Anne Shapland (standing left) as his patient Alma Winemiller and Randy Arney (standing right) as his son, Dr. John Buchanan, Jr., rehearse their roles for the upcoming Theatre Arts production of Tennessee Williams' play "Summer and Smoke." The play begins at 8 p.m. Friday in the Fine Arts Center Theatre. Other presentations will be Saturday and Nov. 21 and at 2 p.m. Nov. 23.