

1945

Son Of Mrs. Crane Wounded In Germany (PFC Everett Pittman

Newton Illinois Public Library

Follow this and additional works at: http://thekeep.eiu.edu/with_the_colors_no_date

Recommended Citation

Newton Illinois Public Library, "Son Of Mrs. Crane Wounded In Germany (PFC Everett Pittman" (1945). No Date. 3.
http://thekeep.eiu.edu/with_the_colors_no_date/3

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the With the Colors: Jasper County IL Servicemen Overseas, 1941-1945 at The Keep. It has been accepted for inclusion in No Date by an authorized administrator of The Keep. For more information, please contact tabruns@eiu.edu.

Son Of Mrs. Crane

Wounded In Germany

Mrs. Joe Crane has received word that her son, Pfc. Everett Pittman, of Watseka, Ill., has been wounded in Germany and had been taken to an army hospital in Delaware.

The message did not tell the extent of his injuries, but since it stated that he was not able to see for a time, it is thought it might have been a severe wound in the head.