Here’s How to Write Well (HHWW), 2nd ed. Longman.
Online: A Reference Guide to Using Internet Sources.

Course Objectives:

English 1002G is a writing centered course in the reading and writing of expressive, expository, and persuasive essays. Attention is given to effective expression, clear structure, adequate development, and source documentation. Prerequisite = English 1000 or proficiency in basic skills as determined by the English Department. Students who have ACT scores in English of 14 or below, or who have no test scores on file with the university, must pass English 1000 before enrolling in English 1001G. During the semester you will be expected to write and revise often in and out of class, to complete readings as assigned, to participate in class discussions and peer groups, and to complete all assignments on time.

The minimum writing requirement for the course is 5000 words and will include work done both in and out of class. Essays will be evaluated according to “Guidelines for Evaluating Writing Assignments in EIU’s English Department.

Note: As part of EIU’s Core Curriculum, 1001G will be graded A, B, C, NC (no credit). A grade of NC is not figured into a student’s GPA, but a student who receives a grade of NC must re-take the course.

Required Materials:

Since all essays must be typed, you will need multiple disks to save and back up your work. You will also need two folders/organizers—one in which to keep handouts, returned work, etc., and one in the designated color in which to keep your Journal/Responses.

Class Policy:

You will contract for the grade you want to receive in this course. Since our focus will be on revising/rewriting, not just fixing errors, each letter grade has a different set of requirements. Your essays will receive written and verbal evaluation from me at all stages of development, but your letter grade will already have been determined by your signed contract. If you do not fulfill the specifications of the letter grade for which you have contracted, you will drop to the grade for which requirements have been fulfilled.

Contract Terms:
For an A, you must:
1. meet course attendance requirements (see attached policy).
2. make sure that all drafts and rewrites meet with the specifications of the assignment and conform to the basic writing requirements.
3. rewrite three out of three essays.
4. submit all Journal/Responses (10).
5. attend one session of each of three writing workshops.
6. complete all requirements of the research project on time.

For a B, you must:
1. do the same as for an A.
2. do the same as for an A.
3. rewrite two out of three essays.
4. submit eight (8) Journal/Responses.
5. attend one session in two of the three workshops
6. complete all requirements of the research project on time.

For a C, you must:
1. do the same as for A and B.
2. do the same as for A and B.
3. rewrite one out of three essays.
4. submit six (6) Journal/Responses.
5. attend one session in one of the three workshops
6. complete all requirements of the research project on time.

For any contracted grade, each essay must have a cover letter which reflects the points that I ask you to revise and the process you used. It must also reflect the most difficult part of the revision.

I will keep records of your rewrites, attendance in class, and completed Journal/Responses. Attached to this syllabus, you will find a form for keeping track of your progress—please keep accurate records.

As your instructor, I have the right to decide if a rewrite is complete and in compliance with the assignment. You may rewrite a total of two times to fulfill your contract. If you have contracted for an A but your revisions contain serious errors, I have the right not to accept those revisions as sufficient and subsequently drop you down to the next contracted grade. At such time, we will discuss your options. We will spend considerable time discussing just what a rewrite or revision is. As we go through the semester, the process will become clearer to you as you move toward your contracted goal.

This is an A, B, C, NC course. If you do not fulfill the minimum requirements for a C contract, you will receive an NC and have to retake the course.

Attendance

Regular attendance is essential. You will have four personal days for the semester. If you miss a day, it is your responsibility to contact a classmate to find out what you missed and/or what changes might have been made in our schedule. A missed day does not give you permission to turn work in late. A scheduled EIU function—i.e. sports or academic club-sponsored event—is not counted as a personal day, but I must be notified about such situations one class period before they occur. Serious or prolonged illness or personal problems will be considered on an individual basis. If you miss more than four personal days, you will receive an NC for the course.

Plagiarism

Note: The English department’s statement concerning plagiarism.

Any teacher who discovers an act of plagiarism—"The appropriation or imitation of language, ideas, and/or thoughts of another author, and representation of them as one’s original work" (Random House Dictionary of the English Language)—has the right and the responsibility to impose upon the guilty student an appropriate penalty, up to and including immediate assignment of a grade of F for the course, and to report the incident to the Judicial Affairs Office.

Special Needs

If you have a documented disability and wish to receive academic accommodations, please contact the Coordinator of the Office of Disability Services (581-6583) as soon as possible. Also, discuss the matter with me; I will be more than willing to work with you.
Guidelines for Evaluating Writing Assignments in EIU's English Department

Grades on written work range from A to F. The categories listed below are based on rhetorical principles and assume intellectual responsibility and honesty. Strengths and weaknesses in each area will influence the grade, though individual teachers may emphasize some categories over others and all categories are deeply interrelated.
