Attendance Policy

Attendance in English 1001C is mandatory. Any absence must be discussed with the instructor. Work missed due to an excused absence will be permitted to be made up.

Disabilities

If you have a documented disability and wish to receive academic accommodations, please contact the Coordinator of the Office of Disability Services (581-6583) as soon as possible.

Plagiarism Policy

Please note the English department's statement concerning plagiarism:

"Any teacher who discovers an act of plagiarism--"The appropriation or imitation of the language, ideas, and/or thoughts of another author, and representation of them as one's original work' (Random House Dictionary of the English Language)--has the right and the responsibility to impose upon the guilty student an appropriate penalty, up to and including the immediate assignments of a grade of 'F' for the assigned essay and a grade of 'NC' for the course, and to report the incident to the Judicial Affairs Office."

Writing Center

Please be aware that help is available through the Writing Center in Coleman Hall, Room 301. Students who may need help with a particular writing problem or problems are urged to stop by the center for individual attention. The Writing Center is NOT a proofreading service, however. Do not take an unmarked paper in and expect someone to find all of your errors before you hand in the paper. If you are having difficulty getting started on a particular assignment, or if you know you are weak in a particular area, by all means, stop by the center for help. I may, in fact, refer you to the Writing Center if I detect consistent serious errors or weaknesses in your writing. The Writing Center is not a center for remedial students only. Don't be afraid to ask for help, and do it before it is too late to salvage your grade.
