Course objectives:

This course continues the development of reading and writing skills in the context of poetry, fiction, drama, and other literary work. Literature functions as a stimulus for analytical and critical thinking and writing. Interpreting and evaluating a variety of genres within a range of historical periods requires students to engage in social, cultural, and aesthetic discourse. Because the literary works represent many different cultural perspectives and values, students are encouraged to develop a respect for human diversity. The reading, writing, speaking, and listening experiences inherent in English 1002 will establish a foundation for continued intellectual discovery and aesthetic appreciation.

Attendance:

I have no attendance policy per se. Any work missed due to unexcused absences may not be made up.

Late assignments:

There is a penalty of 5% for each class period of lateness. Work not turned in when I call for it in class is late.

Marking and returning of papers:

Please keep in mind that it takes me a good half-hour to grade a three-page paper, if I am going to mark it carefully and respond to it thoughtfully. Since I often have seventy papers to deal with at once, it can take me two or three weeks to work through the stack.

Plagiarism:

According to the English Department’s policy on plagiarism, “Any teacher who discovers an act of plagiarism—‘The appropriation or imitation of the language, ideas, and/or thoughts of another author, and representation of them as one’s original work’ (Random House Dictionary of the English Language)—has the right and the responsibility to impose upon the guilty student an appropriate penalty, up to and including immediate assignment of a grade of F for the course.”

Grading:

I will evaluate writing according to the criteria set forth in “Guidelines for Evaluating Writing Assignments in EIU’s English Department”, using the following numerical scale:

<table>
<thead>
