Results in District Music Meet Saturday

Earl Boyd

Eastern Illinois University
One hundred eleven first division winners will go from the district ten solo and ensemble music contests held on the campus of Eastern Illinois State college April 3, entering the state final contests of the Illinois High School association April 30 and May 1. Some 900 high school students represented 31 schools in the annual festival. All but three of the 31 schools will be represented in the state finals, according to Dr. Archie Ayers, principal of Eastern State High school and manager of the festival.

The host school (Eastern State High) carried off top honors in the Class C category, winning ten individual and five ensemble first division ratings. In Class B, Paris eight firsts and 15 seconds to Mattoon's seven firsts and seven seconds, Galva's high scored eight firsts. In the large Class D group of schools, including all with 150 or fewer students, Arthur and Newman Look high honors. Arthur won nine firsts and 13 seconds while Newman took seven firsts and five seconds.

Only first division winners compete in the state contest.

Judges for the all-day festival were Kenneth Cuthbert, Illinois Wesleyan; Newell Long, Indiana University; Liberal Monachesi, Southwest High school, St. Louis; Walter Emch, Millikin university; Franklin Inglis, DePauw university; Arnold Zoph, St. Louis university; Mrs. Ralph Tirey, Indiana State Teachers college; and Lawrence Elberly, Indiana State Teachers college.

Charleston High school students participating in Class B scored as follows: piano, Robert Ferris, first; girl's high voice, Charlotte Montague, first; Annabelle Dearborne, third; twirling, Lois Benge; cornet, Reggie Replogle, first; saxophone, Mary Coartney, second; girl's medium voice, Bernice Kingery, third; boy's medium voice, Richard Crail, third; girl's ensemble, second.

In the Class C competition Eastern State students scored as follows: girl's medium voice, Anne Rothschild first, Patricia Firebaugh, third; B FlA clarinet, Annette Tolley, first, John Swickard, second; piano, Margery Swickard, first, Anne Rothschild, third, Burton Barnes, first; violin, Robert Zeigel, first; alto saxophone, John Swickard, first; French horn, Anna Bruce, first, Margery Alter, second; girl's low voice, Marjorie Swickard, first; Karen Moore, second; cornet, David Swickard, first; boy's mixed voice, John Swickard, first; clarinet duet, first; flute duet, second; girl's sextet No. 1, first; girl's sextet No. 2, second; clarinet quartet, first; clarinet duet, first; trombone trio, first; girl's high voice, Bernita Bushart, third; twirling, Helen Brooks, second.