Required Texts: Writing Essays about Literature, 10th ed., Edgar V. Roberts
Exploring Literature, 2nd ed., Griffith

Course Objectives:
English 1002G is a writing centered course, the purpose of which is to introduce you to the principal literary genres—poetry, fiction, and drama. During the semester you will be expected to write and revise often in and out of class, to complete readings as assigned, to participate in class discussions and peer groups, and to complete all assignments on time. After successfully completing this course, you will have a broader understanding and appreciation of the genres, and you will be able to write competent essays on all three genres.

The minimum writing requirement for this course is 5000 words and will include work done both in and out of class. Essays will be evaluated according to the “Guidelines for Evaluating Writing Assignments in EIU’s English Department.” NOTE: As part of EIU’s Core Curriculum, 1002G will be graded A, B, C, or NC (no credit). A grade of NC is not figured into a student’s GPA, but the student who earns a grade of NC must re-take the course.

Required Materials:
Since all essays must be typed, you will be wise to invest in a flash drive to save and back up your work. You will also need two folders/organizers—one in which to keep handouts, returned work, etc., and one in the designated color in which to keep your Journal/Study Sheets.

Class Policy:
You will contract for the grade you want to receive in this course. Since our focus will be on revising/rewriting, not just fixing errors, each letter grade has a different set of requirements. Your essays will receive written and verbal evaluation from me at all stages of development, but your letter grade will already have been determined by your signed contract. If you do not fulfill the specifications of the letter grade for which you have contracted, you will drop to the grade for which requirements have been fulfilled.

Contract Terms:
For an A, you must:
1. meet course attendance requirements (see attached policy).
2. make sure that all drafts and rewrites meet with the specifications of the assignment and conform to the basic writing requirements (see Guidelines for Evaluating Writing Assignments in EIU’s English Department).
3. rewrite all three essays.
5. attend one session of each of the three writing workshops.
6. score at least an 85 on all three exams.

For a B, you must:
1. do the same as for an A.
2. do the same as for an A.
3. rewrite two out of three essays.
4. submit 15 Journal/Study Sheets
5. attend one session in two of the three writing workshops.
6. score at least 75 on all three exams.

For a C, you must:
1. do the same as for A and B.
2. do the same as for A and B.
3. rewrite one out of three essays.
4. submit 11 Journal/Study Sheets.
5. attend one session in one of the three writing workshops.
6. score at least 60 on all three exams.

For any contracted grade, each revision must have a ten-sentence (minimum) cover letter reflecting the points that you were advised to revise, suggestions acted upon, reasons for all revisions, the process used, and the most difficult part of revision. I will look at your papers a maximum of three times each—the initial submission and two revisions (if two are necessary).
I will keep records of your rewrites, attendance in class and workshops, and your completed Journal/Study Sheets. Attached to this syllabus, you will find a form for keeping track of your progress—please keep accurate records. As your instructor, I have the right to decide if a rewrite is complete and in compliance with the assignment. You may need to rewrite several times to fulfill your contract. If you have contracted for an A but your revisions contain serious errors, I have the right not to accept those revisions as sufficient and subsequently drop you down to the next contracted grade. At such time, we will discuss your options.

We will spend considerable time discussing just what a rewrite or revision is. As the semester progresses, the process will become clearer to you as you move toward your contracted goal.

Research Component

For each paper you will prepare a Works Cited page that will contain at least three entries—the literature source (story, drama, poem bibliography information) and two additional sources. You must use at least two outside sources that you will find at www.looksmart.com. If your sources are found elsewhere, you must include a copy of your entire source with your paper submission. Your papers will be written using the MLA format and should be three pages in length.

Attendance

Regular attendance is essential. You will have four personal days for the semester. If you miss a day, it is your responsibility to contact a classmate to find out what you missed and/or what changes might have been made in our schedule. A missed day does not give you permission to turn work in late. A scheduled EIU function—i.e. sports or academic club-sponsored event—is not counted as a personal day, but I must be notified about such situations one class period before they occur. Serious or prolonged illness or personal problems will be considered on an individual basis. If you miss more than 4 (four) personal days, you will receive an NC for the course.

Plagiarism

Note: The English department’s statement concerning plagiarism.

Any teacher who discovers an act of plagiarism—“The appropriation or imitation of language, ideas, and/or thoughts of another author, and representation of them as one's original work” (Random House Dictionary of the English Language)—has the right and the responsibility to impose upon the guilty student an appropriate penalty, up to and including immediate assignment of a grade of F for the course, and to report the incident to the Judicial Affairs Office.

Disabilities

“If you have a documented disability and wish to receive academic accommodations, please contact the Coordinator of Disability Services (581-6538) as soon as possible.

Writing Center

The Writing Center (WC) is available to you as a free tutorial service; however, it is not a “magic” remedy for all writing problems, and you should not expect to take an essay there to be proofread and corrected before it is submitted for grading. You can expect the WC staff to help you find and eliminate specific problems.

Guidelines for Evaluating Writing Assignments in EIU's English Department

Grades on written work range from A to F. The categories listed below are based on rhetorical principles and assume intellectual responsibility and honesty. Strengths and weaknesses in each area will influence the grade, though individual teachers may emphasize some categories over others and all categories are deeply interrelated.

<td>Focus</td>
<td>Has clearly stated purpose or main idea/thesis which is not very clearly stated and is developed with limited originality and/or thoughtfulness; may have missed or failed to conform to some element of the assignment's guidelines</td>
<td>Has a discernible purpose or main idea/thesis which is not very clearly stated and is developed with limited originality and/or thoughtfulness; may have missed or failed to conform to some element of the assignment's guidelines</td>
<td>Has no apparent purpose or main idea/thesis; shows little thoughtfulness and/or originality, may not conform to significant elements of the assignment's guidelines</td>
<td>Has no purpose or main idea/thesis; shows little or no thoughtfulness and/or originality, may not conform to the guidelines of the assignment</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Organization</td>
<td>Is logically organized, but without overly obvious organizational devices, has unity, coherence, strong transitions; has well-defined introduction, body, conclusion</td>
<td>Is organized, but not necessarily in the most logical way; has unity &amp; coherence but may make inconsistent use of transitions; has introduction, body, conclusion, one of which may be weak</td>
<td>Is somewhat organized, but is confusing to readers; shows significant problems with coherence, unity, transitions; no or poorly written introduction, body or conclusion</td>
<td>Is not organized; has little or no coherence and unity; poor or no use of transitions; no or poorly written introduction, body or conclusion</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Development</td>
<td>Supports purpose or main idea with abundant, fresh details; details are specific and appropriate; uses sources well when sources are called for in the assignment</td>
<td>Supports purpose or main idea with details, but some parts of the paper are inadequately/ inappropriately developed or vague</td>
<td>Makes an attempt to use details to develop purpose or main idea but is, for the most part, inadequately/inappropriately developed</td>
<td>Does not develop main idea; may use sources inadequately/inappropriately</td>
