Required Texts: Dictionary.
The Little, Brown Handbook, 11th ed., Fowler and Aaron
Allyn and Bacon GUIDE to Writing, ed. John Ramage
They Say, I Say, Graff, et.al.

Course Description: English 1001G is a writing centered course designed to improve skills in critical thinking and analytical expression. It requires reading and writing of expressive, expository, and persuasive essays. Attention is given to each effective expression, clear structure, adequate development, and source documentation. Prerequisite = English 1000 or proficiency in basic skills as determined by the English department. Students who have HCT scores in English of 14 or below, or who have no test scores on file with University, must pass English 1000 before enrolling in English 1001G. During the semester you will be expected to write and revise in and out of class, to complete readings assigned, to participate in class discussions and peer groups, and to complete all assignments correctly and on time.

The minimum writing requirement for the course is 5000 words and will include work done both in and out of class. Essays will be evaluated according to "Guidelines for Evaluating Writing Assignments in EIU's English Department.

Required Materials: Since all essays must be typed, students are required to have flash drives on which to save and backup work. They will also need to highlighters and two folders—one in which to keep handouts, returned work, etc., and one in the class designated color in which to keep Responses.

Grading policy: Focus will be on writing and revising. Essays will receive written and verbal evaluation for me at all stages of development. Each essay will receive CREDIT for the original version and a GRADE for the revision. Essays will be evaluated according to the "Guidelines for Evaluating Writing Assignments in EIU's English Department" (GEWA). Note: As part of EIU’s Core Curriculum, 1001G will be graded B, C, or NC (no credit). An NC is not figured into a student's GPA, but the student who earns a grade of NC must retake the course.

Each revision must have an 8-10 sentence (minimum) cover letter reflecting:

1. the points you were advised to revise
2. suggestions acted upon,
3. reasons for all revisions,
3. reasons for all revisions,
4. process used, and
5. most difficult part of revision.

I will keep records of your grades, attendance in class and workshops, and completed Response Sheets. Attached to this syllabus is a form for keeping track of student progress. As the instructor, I have the right to decide if a draft is complete and in compliance with the assignment.

Attendance: Regular attendance is essential. You will have three (3) personal days for the semester. If you miss a day, it is your responsibility to contact a classmate to find out what you missed and/or what changes might have been made in our schedule. A missed day does not give you permission to turn work in late. A scheduled University function--i.e. sports or academic club-sponsored event--is not counted as a personal day, but I must be notified about such situations one class day before they occur. Serious or prolonged illness or personal problems will be considered on an individual basis, but you must notify me about the situation. If you miss more than THREE (3) personal days, you will receive an NC for the course.

Plagiarism: Note--The English Department's statement concerning plagiarism: Any teacher who discovers an act of plagiarism--"The appropriation or imitation of language, ideas, and/or thoughts of another author, and representation of them as one's original work" (Random House Dictionary of the English Language)--has the right and the responsibility to impose upon the guilty student an appropriate penalty, up to and including immediate assignment of a grade of F for the course and to report the incident to the Judicial Affairs Office. Any time you use the exact words or paraphrase of another person's work, you must give credit to that person with in text citations that are noted on the Works Cited page that should accompany your essay. Anything listed on the Works Cited page must be used in the paper. Respect for the work of others should encompass all formats, including print, electronic, and oral sources. If you are not sure whether a source needs to be cited in the text and on the Works Cited page, please consult with me. Plagiarism in any form will absolutely not be tolerated!

Prerequisites: Any student in a section of 1001G who has not completed 1000 or achieved an ACT score of at least 14 is not eligible to enroll in 1001G may not reregister for 1001.

Electronic Writing Portfolio: Completion of the EWP is a University requirement for graduation. Students must take the initiative Instructions in this process are included in this handout. The deadline for submission will be November 18, 2011 (Friday before Thanksgiving break).
Disabilities: If you have a documented disability and wish to receive academic accommodation, please contact the coordinator of disability services (581-6538) as soon as possible.

Writing Center: The Writing Center (WC) is available to you as a free tutorial service; however, it is not a "magic" remedy for all writing problems, and you should not expect to take an essay there to be proofread and corrected before it is submitted for grading. I encourage you to use EIU's Writing Center located at 3110 Coleman Hall. This service provides one-to-one conferences with writing Center consultants who can help you with brainstorming, organizing, developing supports, and documenting your papers.

The writing center is open to help any student from any major at any stage of his or her writing process, and its system of one-to-one conferences demonstrates the value and respect for individual writers, all of whom can benefit from feedback about their works in progress.

To schedule an appointment, you can drop by the Center or you can call 581-5929. The Center is open Monday through Thursday, 9 AM to 3 PM and 6 PM to 9 PM. Friday hours of operation are 9 AM to 1 PM.

Laptop and Cell Phone Policy: In class, you may use your own computer or the computers that have been provide only in a scholarly fashion. In other words, you will open only applications related to class discussions. You are absolutely not allowed to check e-mail, news, or box scores; surf the Web; use chat applications; play games; or otherwise distract yourself and/or others from the business of class. I will, at random times, tell everyone who is using a computer to turn the monitor around so that I may see what you are doing on it. If you have distracting applications and events open on your computer, you will receive one warning; if you persist after the warning, you will no longer be allowed to use a computer in class.

You are likewise expected to use cell phones in a responsible manner; turn them off when you come in to class. If you have an emergency for which you must be available, you should leave your phone out on your desk with the ringer ON. In the event that it rings, you may retrieve it and then leave the room to take the call. Under NO conditions are you allowed to text message, take pictures or video (illegal in class), play games, or use the cell phone in any other manner during class.

Guidelines for Evaluating Writing Assignments in EIU's English Department
Grades on written work range from A to F. The categories are based on rhetorical principles and assume intellectual responsibility and honesty. Strengths and weaknesses in each area will influence the grade, though individual teachers may emphasize some categories over others and all categories are deeply interrelated. (See attached)

Electronic Writing Portfolio

what you need to know

What is the purpose of the Electronic Writing Portfolio?

Effective writing is a goal of Eastern's undergraduate program, and the EWP allows the University to assure that its students are effective writers. The EWP gathers authentic artifacts of students' writing to ascertain that Eastern's students are meeting that goal. Completing the EWP is a graduation requirement of all undergraduate students.

What does Eastern consider effective writing?

Competent writing at Eastern displays the following skills: establishing and maintaining focus and appropriate voice; organization that enhances presentation of material/ideas; development of ideas supported by details; use of effective sentence structure, syntax, and diction; and the use of correct mechanics.

What courses are eligible for paper submissions?

Three submissions are required for the portfolio. Submissions may come from any writing-centered or writing-intensive course, or from any other undergraduate course for which you have completed an appropriate writing assignment (see below). Courses designated as writing-intensive or writing-centered are indicated in the catalog, or a list is available at www.eiu.edu/~assessment.

Only one submission is allowed from any one course. If you submit from ENG 1001G/1091G, you may not submit from ENG 1002G/1092G. Before you submit from any course, it is a good idea to discuss your plan to submit with your instructor.

What kind of papers may be submitted?

- The paper must be at least 750 words in length (approximately 3 pages).
- It must be written in standard English.
- It must be developed in a manner consistent with the demands of the discipline for which is was written.
- It must contain a coherent writing sample that connects ideas within and between paragraphs. Therefore, lists, lesson plans, and other such documents may not be submitted.
- Submissions may not be creative pieces, such as poems, short stories, or plays.

When do I need to submit?

All papers must be submitted the semester a student is enrolled in a course. Students may not submit papers for courses after the semester ends. If you fail to submit a paper from a course from which you planned to submit, you will need to choose a new course for your EWP submission.

You must submit your first two papers by the time you have earned 60 credit hours. If you do not, a registration hold will be placed on your record at 75 hours.

The third and final submission must be submitted by the time you earn 105 hours. A registration hold will be placed if this deadline is not met.
How do I submit to the EWP?

- Go to http://www.eiu.edu/~assess.
- Click on "student login" under the EWP heading. Instructions are also available here.
- Enter your EIU login and password. Click "submit." This is the same as your EIU e-mail login and PAWS login. (Please call the Help Desk at 581-help (217-581-4357) if you have trouble with your login.)
- This should take you to the EWP Student: Main Menu page. Click on "Submit a Writing Sample."
- Select the course from which you want to submit from the drop-down menu.
- Click the "Upload Writing Sample" button.
- Click the "browse" button and go to the file you want to submit and click on the file.

  The file must be one of the following types: Microsoft word (.doc), plain text (.txt), rich text (.rtf), or PDF (.pdf). If you have questions about converting a file to one of the formats listed above, please call the Help Desk at 217-581-4357.
- Click the "open" button. The file location will appear in the "File to Upload" box. Type in a description of the assignment that was given for the paper you are submitting.
- Click the "validate file" button.
- Click the "Upload File and Complete Submission" button. You will receive a message that you have successfully submitted a writing sample to the Electronic Writing Portfolio and will be taken back to the main menu.

How will I know the ratings my papers received?

After you have submitted your document, a notice will be sent to your professor to rate your paper. To check your ratings, log in by following the first 4 steps given under the submission instructions. At the main menu, click on "View Ratings" to see your ratings.

How will my ratings be used?

Ratings will be used to determine how well you write. Students whose 3 submissions are primarily "superior" will be given a "writes with distinction" designation.

Students whose first two submissions are "unsatisfactory" and/or "needs improvement" will be required to take a diagnostic test that will determine if further remediation is needed. An average score below 2.0 will determine who is required to test.

Students will be contacted through their EIU email account if this test or other requirements are needed.

Do I have to submit if I transfer in to Eastern?

Yes. Transfer students must submit 3 documents to the EWP as part of their graduation requirements. Additional time may be needed for transfer students to submit, so leeway will be granted. Students who transfer into Eastern should consult with their advisors concerning their submission plans. It is recommended to submit at least one paper your first semester at Eastern.

GOOD PRACTICE: Keep all your coursework electronically until you graduate!
