Nature of the Course:
Students will read short stories, poetry and plays. Papers of a critical and analytical nature will be written about these works: a research paper with documented sources will be the final paper.

Department Policy on Plagiarism:
"Any teacher who discovers an act of plagiarism—'The appropriation or imitation of the language, ideas, and/or thoughts of another author, and representation of them as one's original work' (Random House Dictionary of the English Language) has the right and the responsibility to impose upon the guilty student an appropriate penalty, up to and including a grade of F for the assigned essay and a grade of NC for the course, and to report the incident to the Judicial Affairs Office."

Attendance: A student who misses class loses points. Much of the work done in class, such as in-class writing, class participation and quizzes, earns points that cannot be made up. If you have a problem, please see me or call to discuss it.

Office of Disability: If you have a documented disability and wish to receive academic accommodations, please contact the Coordinator of the Office of Disability Services (581-6583).

Late Papers: A paper that is late ONE day loses points. Papers OVER one day late are still required as part of the course work. The paper will be read and evaluated, but for no credit. Exceptions may be made in certain situations; see me if an emergency arises. A paper that is one day late must be turned to CH308, initialed by the secretary, and placed in my mailbox before 4:30 when the office closes.

Grading: 100 points – short papers
300 points – three 5 page essays
125 points – estimate of participation, questions and quiz points
100 points – mid-term and final exams
Assignment for Thursday, January 13.
