Attendance Policy
You can miss FIVE classes without penalty. Also, an absence is an absence. I will not judge between excused or unexcused, so you do not need to tell me why you missed class. If you miss more than FIVE classes you will receive an “F.” I do take attendance everyday be it formally or informally.

Beginning composition is, in many ways, the MOST important class you will take at the university. It is designed to aid you throughout your entire collegiate career and into your careers as professionals. Therefore, treat it as such.

You should also know that this class is considered “writing centered” for your EWP requirements (which we will talk about later in the semester). Furthermore, if you have a documented disability and wish to receive accommodations, please contact the Office of Disability Services (581-6583) as soon as possible.

Plagiarism
“Any teacher who discovers an act of plagiarism—‘the appropriation or imitation of the language, ideas, and / or thoughts of another author, and representation of them as one’s original work’ (Random House Dictionary of the English Language) - has the right and the responsibility to impose upon the guilty student an appropriate penalty, up to and including immediate assignment of a grade of “F” for the assigned essay and a grade of “F” for the course, and to report the incident to the Judicial Affairs Office.”

A very serious offense, it can, and has resulted in expulsion from the university. This class is about learning the necessary skills for all classes to come; don’t cheat yourself.

Preaching Time
This class will be what you make it. You reap what you sow. This class and your participation in the class is based primarily on the readings. If you do them, you will get more out of the class; if you do not, and if you say, “this class sucks, I’m not getting anything out of it,” that will be your fault.
