Description and Guidelines: English 1002G, Composition and Literature, is a writing course designed to improve skills in critical thinking and analytical expression based on the study of fiction, drama and film. All students enrolled in this course should have passed English 1001C (with a grade of C or better) or must have fulfilled the requirement through transfer credit or through the CLEP proficiency exam. Please make sure you have fulfilled this prerequisite before continuing this course.

Attendance: Each student is allowed three unexcused absences; every unexcused absence after three will lower the student's final grade 5%. Students are responsible for all material covered in class, which includes but is not limited to all lecture material and any changes made in the syllabus. Quizzes may not be made up; the three lowest quiz grades will be dropped. Exams may be made up with an excused absence and prior arrangement with the instructor.

Late Work: Papers are due at the beginning of class on the assigned dates. Any paper passed in late will be penalized one full grade every day—including Saturday and Sunday—that the paper is late. With an excused absence and prior arrangement with the instructor, a paper may be handed in late without penalty.

Papers: All papers must be typed, double-spaced; pages should be numbered and held together with a paper clip. The student's name, the date, the instructor's name, and the title of the essay should appear, single-spaced, at the top left of the first page of the essay. All papers will be given a number grade, a letter grade, critical comments, and an explanation of the grade. Any paper and paper's grade may be discussed at length during office hours or a scheduled appointment.

Plagiarism: Eastern Illinois University English Department's policy on plagiarism: Any teacher who discovers an act of plagiarism—"The appropriation or imitation of the language, ideas, and/or thoughts of another author, and representation of them as one's original work" (Random House Dictionary of the English Language)—has the right and the responsibility to impose upon the guilty student an appropriate penalty, up to and including immediate assignment of a grade of F for the course, and to report the incident to the Judicial Affairs Office.

Students with Disabilities: If you are a student who has a documented disability and wishes to receive academic accommodations, please contact the Coordinator of the Office of Disability Services (581-6583) as soon as possible.

Cell Phones: Cell phones must be turned off before entering the classroom. Every time your cell phone makes any sound, you will have five points deducted from your next essay or exam.
Journal: Every student will keep a class journal on a disk, CD, or notebook, which will be collected on the last day of class. Any student who does not turn in a complete journal will be downgraded one letter grade on the final grade. The journal will contain reader responses; paper ideas, outlines, and rough drafts; and free-writing exercises.

Explanation of “expert”

Most of the short stories assigned will each be assigned four experts. Experts are students who help the instructor with the story’s discussion; the experts meet with the instructor briefly at the end of the class period prior to the class during which they will be experts. During this brief meeting the instructor and experts plan a course of action for the upcoming discussion, which involves each expert choosing one of the discussion items provided by the instructor. Each student will have a copy of all discussion items/questions. Experts discuss and draw other students into the discussion; they never simply read notes.

Each expert will also turn in a typed, hard copy of his efforts; this “written copy” will resemble an outline or a rough draft, highlighting major points. It is not a formal paper and should not be approached or executed as one, though excellent effort will certainly be rewarded. Each expert’s oral and written efforts combined will be graded and will count as a double quiz grade.
