Academic Honesty
Please note the English Department’s statement on plagiarism (that is, the intentional or unintentional use of another writer’s intellectual property without proper acknowledgment):
Any teacher who discovers an act of plagiarism – “The appropriation or imitation of the language, ideas, and/or thoughts of another author, and representation of them as one’s own original work” (Random House Dictionary of the English Language) – has the right and the responsibility to impose upon the guilty student an appropriate penalty, up to and including immediate assignments, of a grade of F for the assigned essay and a grade of F for the course, and to report the incident to the Judicial Affairs Office.
Students with Documented Disabilities
If you have a documented disability and wish to receive academic accommodation, you must make arrangements through the Office of Disability Services; you should contact the Coordinator of the Office of Disability Services (581-6583) as soon as possible.

Be Prepared for Class
To prepare for each class, please do the following:
1. Bring your textbook(s) and journal with you to class
2. Read the assigned material before class
3. Respond to the assigned reading in your journal (see Journal section below for more info) before class
4. Type your assignments and bring the appropriate number of copies to class on the day they are due

Daily Journal Responses
Please bring your bound notebook to class each day. In it, you will write responses to be shared with the class. Each response is worth around 10 points and should be comprised of the following:
1. A List of Ten, which means ten of anything about the reading, such as words you needed to look up, items you found interesting or confusing, phrases you had questions about. ANYTHING GOES. Write page numbers. On days when there is no reading beforehand, such as Tuesday, 1/18, when we will watch a film, or on Thursday, 3/10, when we will conduct paired critiques of the Drama Essay, write out your List of Ten during class.
2. Select a passage from any piece of poetry, drama, or fiction and write it out in your journal. Note the title, author, page number, and where appropriate, line number, act/scene, or paragraph number. Write the passage out in your journal, and write down why you have selected it.

Attendance
I do not keep attendance, but rather, give points toward Daily Journal Responses if you attend class and have a written response that you read out loud. If you are not present, if you do not have a response, or if you do not read it out loud, you will not receive points for that day’s Daily Journal Response. Exceptions will be made only for documented emergencies and documented school team sport activities. The Mid-Term and Final Exam cannot be made up if missed. Due dates for all assignments are final: if you cannot attend class on the day an essay is due, you must get the assignment to me beforehand.

Tartuffe at Doudna Fine Arts Center
You must attend one performance of Tartuffe at the Doudna Fine Arts Center. It runs Friday, March 4th – Monday, March 7th. When you take your mid-term on Tuesday, March 8th, you must have a ticket or a signed program (signed and dated by an usher, cast member, or the director) from the performance, which you turn in with your mid-term exam, or you will receive no credit for the exam.
Communicating with the Professor
If you need to contact me outside of class, please meet me at my office during office hours, or email me. Please remember that I am your professor and keep all communication with me clear, respectful, and timely.
