Course Description:
This course, Composition and Language, is a writing course designed to improve the skills necessary to write expressive, expository, and persuasive essays. Attention will be given to effective expression, clear structure, adequate development, and documentation of sources. This is a writing centered course; therefore the focus will fall on the writing process. All students will be required to develop and maintain a writing portfolio that will be a substantial portion of his/her grade.

All students enrolled in English 1001 should have passed English 1000 or proficiency in basic skills as determined by the English Department.

This is a writing centered course, so you will be required to submit an essay written for this class (or 1002) to your Electronic Writing Portfolio (EWP).

Attendance, Tardiness, and Participation:
Frequent and subsequent class participation is necessary to succeed in this class, and as a result, fulfills a significant portion of your final grade (100 points). You will be allowed three absences total, excused or unexcused, and each absence thereafter will result in the subtraction of 10 participation points.

Late Work:
Papers are due at the beginning of class on the assigned dates. Late papers will be penalized by one letter grade per each day the paper is late (including weekends). For example, if the paper is due Monday, and you do not turn it in until Wednesday, the best grade you can earn is an 80%. I will not accept daily work late (reading questions, etc).

Final Portfolio:
As I have indicated, you will be responsible for a final portfolio due at the end of the semester. The purpose of this portfolio is to track your improvement and process over the semester. You will be responsible for saving all prewriting, rough drafts, and final drafts. Any missing documents will result in lost points.

Formatting:
Always keep a personal copy of any polished paper you submit to me. Save it on disk in rich-text format, as well, so it could easily be submitted to the EWP. Secure all sheets together. Put your name and the page number in the top right corner of each sheet but the first. On the first page put a title and the following:

Your name
Assignment Number
English 1001, Section 61
My Name
Date

Conferences:
I will require you to meet with me in several conferences during the semester. These appointments are essential for individual attention regarding your strengths and weaknesses in the writing process. This will be your opportunity to ask specific questions about the paper and your writing in general. They count towards your participation points, so please remember the appointment and come prepared.

Office of Disability Services:
If you have a documented disability that may require assistance, you will need to contact the Office of Disability Services (581-6583).

Plagiarism:
According to the English Department's policies on plagiarism:

Any teacher who discovers an act of plagiarism—“The approbation or imitation of the language, ideas, and/or thoughts of another author, and representation of them as one's own original work” (Random House Dictionary of the English Language)—has the right and the responsibility to impose upon the guilty student an appropriate penalty, up to and including immediate assignments, of a grad of F for the assigned essay and a grade of F for the course, and to report the incident to the Judicial Affairs Office

Writing Center:
I strongly recommend that you use the Writing Center to improve your writing in this class and others. The Writing Center will not proofread your work but will suggest practices that could advance your writing skills. The Writing Center is located in Coleman Hall 3110—it is recommended that you make appointments well in advance.
