Course Description and Goals

English 1001 G is a course in the reading and writing of expressive, expository, and persuasive texts. The goal is to help you improve your critical reading, thinking, and writing skills. Specifically, you will learn to:

- Understand and use the various stages of the writing process
- Use strategies for writing purposeful well-developed prose
- Write clearly and economically in standard written English
- Evaluate and critique your own and your peer's writing
- Use and document sources for research-based writing

You will complete five essays that vary in length and complexity. We will spend most of our class time discussing assigned readings and various aspects of writing. There will be 4 peer-editing workshops in which you evaluate and critique your classmates' assignment drafts.

Texts

Requirements

This is a writing-centered course. There is no midterm or final for this course. You must successfully complete all the work listed below to pass the course.

- Completion of five essays. Instructions for each essay will be provided separately.
- Participation in class discussion of assigned readings
- Participation in peer editing workshops
- In class writings, quizzes, online responses
- Attendance at scheduled conferences

Grading

The five essays will be graded on a 100-point scale and will count for 80% of your grade. The weight of each paper in your final grade is listed below:

- #1: descriptive/expansive essay 10%
- #2: expository essay 15%
- #3: persuasive/argumentative essay 20%
- #4: revision of one of the first three essays 10%
- #5: research paper 25%
- Participation 20%

A=100-90  B=89-80  C=79-70  NC (No Credit) =69-0

The minimum grade required to pass this course is C
Course Policies
Your participation and involvement is important for the success of this class. You are expected to attend class, submit assignments on time, and be prepared for all class activities.

5 or more unexcused absences will result in a 0 for the participation portion of the final grades. 7 or more unexcused absences will result in an NC for the class.

All peer-editing workshops and scheduled conferences are required. Missing a peer editing workshop or a conference with me without a valid excuse will mean a reduction of 10 points from the participation portion of the final grades. Students missing a peer-editing workshop will also lose 5 points from the total points given for the current essay.

Papers must be turned in on the specified date. If you have a problem completing an assignment, you must contact me before the due date. Late papers without a valid excuse will not be accepted.

Submission of papers may include drafts and other additional materials specified on assignment instructions, so keep all drafts, especially those with your peers’ comments. Failure to turn in all required materials for an assignment will result in point deduction for that assignment.

Use font 12, double space for your papers. Don’t use fonts wider or bigger than 12 Times New Roman.

Plagiarism
The English Department’s statement on plagiarism:

Any teacher who discovers an act of plagiarism—"The appropriation or imitation of the language, ideas, and/or thoughts of another author, and representation of them as one's original work" (Random House Dictionary of the English Language)—has the right and the responsibility to impose upon the guilty student an appropriate penalty, up to and including immediate assignments of a grade of F for the assigned essay and a grade of F for the course, and to report the incident to the Judicial Affairs Office. Respect for the work of others should encompass all formats, including print, electronic, and oral sources.

Electronic Writing Portfolio
The Electronic Writing Portfolio (EWP) is a university graduation requirement. You may submit an essay from either English 1001G or English 1002G. More information about EWP is available at http://www.eiu.edu/~assess/

The Writing Center
The Writing Center, located in Coleman Hall 3110, offers help with all kinds of writing at all stages. Tutors, who are graduate students from the English department, help students with various aspects of writing—invention, developing a thesis, organizing ideas, documenting sources, editing, grammar, etc. More information about the Writing Center is available at http://www.eiu.edu/~writing/

Students with Disabilities
If you have a documented disability and wish to receive academic accommodations, please contact the Office of Disability Services (581-6583) as soon as possible.
