Course Objectives

English 1002G is an introduction to the principal literary genres – poetry, drama, and fiction. After completing this course, you will have a broader understanding and appreciation of the three genres, and you will be able to write competent essays on all three.

Stuff You’ll Need

All essays must be typed, so you'll need disks or thumb drives to save your work. In addition, you will need a folder to keep your essays, revisions, and quizzes.

Class Policy

You will work through several stages of writing prior to submitting a final draft. You must complete all stages of the writing process, and I must see an essay in all stages. I will not accept a final essay I have not seen through the planning and revision stages. You must turn in all essays in order to pass the course. Since this is a writing centered course, we will discuss the EWP and set aside class time to attend to those who need to complete the submission process. All EWP submissions must be attended to by Dec 6, 2012.

Revision Assessment Letters

A revision assessment letter must accompany every stage of your writing. Before I will read any draft of an essay, you must include a typed letter discussing the writing of the essay. For example, a letter accompanying a first draft might discuss areas in which you struggled. The letters are a way for you to communicate things you want me to take a closer look at or concerns you want to address that will aid you in revision. Each revision must have a letter that discusses what you have revised and any aspects of the paper that need further work. To me these letters are a valuable tool in our revision process. I expect the letters to be several paragraphs long and not merely a summary of changes. They should discuss the on-going development of your essay.

Peer Editing, Revision Workshops and Conferences

For each peer editing and revision session, the class will sign up for one class session that week. You are expected to attend your session, and you then have the remainder of the week to work on your essay outside of class. Attendance at the session you sign up for is vital. If you fail to show up for your assigned session, you will lose one letter grade off the final grade for the essay. If you come without a paper to offer into the editing process, you will be asked to leave, and you will be marked down one letter grade for not participating in that session. The same will occur if you come with a few paragraphs or if you arrive after the editing process has started. If you come without an assessment letter, I will not look at your draft. You can’t miss your session and randomly attend another session. That time has been allotted for me to look at other students’ papers. There is one scheduled conference this semester. We will go over your essay and assess your grade and set up the next assignment, so obviously these are important dates. Don’t skip out of a conference. There won’t be time to reschedule. If you do miss the conference, you will miss out on actively participating in the writing process and the assessment of your essay’s grade. Be there.

Plagiarism

Note: The English department’s statement concerning plagiarism.

Any teacher who discovers an act of plagiarism—“The appropriation or imitation of language, ideas, and/or thoughts of another author, and representation of them as one’s original work” (Random House Dictionary of the English Language)—has the right and the responsibility to impose upon the guilty student an appropriate penalty, up to and including immediate assignment of a grade of F for the course, and to report the incident to the Judicial Affairs Office.

Attendance

Regular attendance is essential. Due dates are in bold on the syllabus. If you are sick, you need to make arrangements to get your essay to me. Do not email or call the office “after the fact.” If you know you are going to miss a class, let me know ahead of time. You need to inquire about missed work the class period after the absence. If you are ill, go to Health Service during our class period to obtain an excused absence. Do not email me to ask what we did in class or email to tell me you will be gone. Come by the office or call my cell phone.

Late Work

Essays turned in after scheduled due dates will be marked down one letter grade for every class period they are late. No exceptions. If you miss a quiz, you must ask to make it up the class period following the absence, and you must have a university approved absence.

Late to Class

If you come in late and a quiz is in process, you will not be able to take the quiz. I will not keep starting a quiz over for late arrivals. Usually, I will close the door and reopen it after the quiz is finished. If you arrive after peer editing has started, you will not be allowed to enter into the paper rotation. Missing peer editing is a letter grade reduction.

Grading

All final drafts will be given a numeral grade.
