Description: English 1002C is a writing course designed to improve skills in critical thinking and analytical expression based on the reading of literary texts. Prerequisite: English 1001C. According to the guidelines set forth by the English Department, the goals for our classroom this semester are to introduce a variety of works of literature, to instruct in generic distinctions, to develop attentive and sensitive readers, and to guide in articulating (both in class discussion and in written discourse) a mature, informed reaction to literary works. We will divide the semester evenly among the major genres: fiction, poetry, and drama.

Texts: The Bedford Introduction to Literature
Writing Essays about Literature
A Pocket Style Manual
English Online
A standard college dictionary

Grading Policies: Each student will complete an in-class diagnostic writing sample which will not be graded. Each student will write two major essays. Failure to complete both essays will result in a N/C for the course. The final course grade will be computed on the basis of 500 points.

Concerning Plagiarism: Any teacher who discovers an act of plagiarism—“The appropriation of imitation of the language, ideas and/or thoughts of another author, and representation of them as one’s original work” (random House dictionary of the English Language)—has the right and the responsibility to impose upon the guilty student an appropriate penalty, up to and including immediate assignment of a grade of F for the assignment and a grade of F for the course, and to report the incident to the Judicial Affairs Office.

Note to Computer Sections: Always bring your formatted disk to class. Computer games and/or pornographic images will not be tolerated in the computer classroom; therefore, failure to comply will result in dismissal from the class with a failing grade.
