Final exam:

Grade Breakdown

| In-class writing and quizzes | 25% | Paper #2 | 15% |
| Paper #1 | 10% | Paper #3 | 20% |
| Midterm | 15% | Final | 15% |
Course objectives:

1. To write expository and persuasive texts in which paragraphs, sentences, and words develop a central idea that responds to the reading of literary works. As in 1001G, these papers should reflect an understanding and command of recursive writing processes: generating and prewriting strategies for formulating a thesis, methods for planning and drafting a paper, strategies of revising for clarity and adequate development, and means for polishing and editing. These papers should demonstrate consideration and employment of effective methods of organization. At least one paper should introduce students to methods of library, online and/or field research, entail the use of primary and secondary source materials drawn from both online and library sources, and reflect current principles of documentation.

2. To write focused, adequately developed paragraphs and sentences in standard written English that are direct, economical, free of ambiguity, structurally appropriate for the ideas expressed and suitable to the purpose of the text.

3. To develop the ability to evaluate and criticize their own and their peers’ writing.

4. To read poetry, fiction, and drama expressing a wide range of cultural perspectives and to think critically and write analytically about them.

5. To engage in reading and writing experiences about literature so as to establish a foundation for continued social, cultural, intellectual, and aesthetic discovery and appreciation.

Attendance:

I have no attendance policy per se. Any work missed due to unexcused absences may not be made up.

Late assignments:

There is a penalty of 5% for each class period of lateness. Work not turned in when I call for it in class is late.

Marking and returning of papers:

Please keep in mind that it takes me a good half-hour to grade a three-page paper, if I am going to mark it carefully and respond to it thoughtfully. Since I often have seventy papers to deal with at once, it can take me two or three weeks to work through the stack.

Plagiarism:

According to the English Department’s policy on plagiarism, “Any teacher who discovers an act of plagiarism—‘The appropriation or imitation of the language, ideas, and/or thoughts of another author, and representation of them as one’s original work’ (Random House Dictionary of the English Language)—has the right and the responsibility to impose upon the guilty student an appropriate penalty, up to and including immediate assignment of a grade of F for the course.”

WARNING: I will assign an F for intentional plagiarism. It is not worth the risk; believe me.

Grading:

I will evaluate writing according to the criteria set forth in “Guidelines for Evaluating Writing Assignments in EIU’s English Department”, using the following numerical scale:
