POLICIES:

Written Assignments: This is a writing course. For that reason, you must complete ALL written assignments listed below in order to pass; even if you could mathematically get a passing grade without turning in a shorter assignment, you must turn it in or you will not pass. For each major writing assignment, you will receive a formal assignment sheet; we will discuss these assignments in-depth in class before they are due so you will always know what is expected of you.

Electronic Writing Portfolio: Your final research essay is ideal for the EWP; the other assignments for this course are not sufficient. If you wish to include your research essay in your EWP, remember that you MUST turn it in by the end of the semester. See me if you would like some help in doing this.

Attendance: Your consistent attendance and participation are necessary to make this class the vibrant exchange of ideas it should be and I take attendance every day (even if you do not see me doing it). You are permitted no more than three unexcused absences. Each unexcused absence after three will lower your final grade by thirty points (3%). Excused absences are accompanied by appropriate legal or medical documentation.

Participation: The small size of this class will allow (and require) you to be an active daily participant in class discussion. In order to make this class the vibrant exchange of ideas it should be, I will expect you to be able and willing to keep up with the reading and speak up in class several times every day. If you don’t volunteer, I will call on you. If you aren’t regularly prepared, this portion of your grade will go down.
Office Hours: The hours listed above are times when I will be in my office ready to meet with students. You can also make a special appointment to see me if you are unable to come during office hours. Twice during the semester, you will be required to meet with me, but I am happy to meet with you other times as well.

Plagiarism: Plagiarism is defined as appropriating words or ideas that are not your own without giving proper credit. The temptation to plagiarize can be great, particularly in the advent of extensive computer technology and the collaborative nature of our class. However, the consequences of plagiarism are dire and can result in a grade of F for the assignment and even for the course. It will also result in a report to the Judicial Affairs Office.
